Run Hungry

WHY RUN HUNGRY? Running Hungry is the opportunity to share in a typical Haitian discomfort: an empty stomach. In order to run hungry, we ask that you refrain from eating on the morning of the race until you have crossed the finish line. Join us as we run on empty for Haiti, and help satisfy the rumblings of an entire nation...Run Hungry!

How did you hear about the Rice and Beans Rumble? _____

MANDATORY WAIVER: I know that running/walking a road race is a potentially hazardous activity. I should not enter and run or walk unless I am medically able and properly trained. I agree to abide by any decision of a race official relative to my ability to safely complete the run. I assume all risks associated with running in this event including, but not limited to: falls, contact with other participants, the effects of the weather, including high heat and/or humidity, traffic, lack of eating or drinking prior to the race, eating too many beans, and the conditions of the road, all such risks being known and appreciated by me. Having read this waiver and knowing these facts and in consideration of the acceptance of my entry, I, for myself and anyone entitled to act on my behalf, waive and release Truth Evangelistic Ministries and the Rice and Beans 5k Rumble, and all sponsors, their representatives and successors from all claims or liabilities of any kind arising out of my participation in this event even though that liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness on the part of the persons named in this waiver.
